

MANCHESTER.

1870, ch. 135.

65. The inhabitants of Manchester, in Carroll county, are a body corporate by the name of "The Mayor and Common Council of the Corporation of Manchester," and by that name may sue and be sued, may purchase and hold real and personal and mixed estates, and dispose of the same for the benefit of said town, and may have and use a common seal, which may be altered at pleasure.

Ibid.

66. The limits of the town of Manchester shall embrace all that tract of land called the German church; also, all that tract called New Market, lying contiguous to each other, as originally laid out in lots; but as the aforesaid bounds do not include all the buildings in said town, it shall be the duty of the mayor and common council to extend the limits by causing the same to be surveyed and stoned; also, a plat and certificate fully describing the bounds of the corporation, to be returned to the clerk of the circuit court for Carroll county for record.

1878, ch. 122.

67. The male citizens of Manchester, of the age of twenty-one years and upwards, and who have resided within the limits of the corporation for the space of six months next preceding the election, shall elect by ballot, on the first Saturday of April in each and every year, at such place as shall be directed by the mayor and common council, between the hours of twelve o'clock m., and four o'clock p. m., a mayor and five councilmen, of the age of twenty-five years and upwards, who have resided there twelve months next preceding the election; and in case of a tie vote at any election, the mayor shall give ten days' notice of a new election to decide the choice between the parties having such tie vote.

1870, ch. 135.

68. The mayor shall give at least two weeks' notice of the election, and shall appoint three persons as judges of election; and the said judges shall have power to appoint a clerk, who shall keep a record of the persons voting and the persons voted for;
